

I am voicing my objections to the FCC considering to repeal regulations that prohibit a media company from owning both TV station and newspapers in the same geographic community. This can only narrow our access to fair and unbiased media and create media monopolies that controll all news.

Thank-you,
Judy Collins